

Occupational Therapy Advisory Committee of the Board of Medical Licensure and Supervision

Meeting Notes
June 18, 2009

Present: Mary White, Debra Smart, Maggie Snook, Anne Marie Grassmann, Kristin Ford.

There were three personal appearances. One for an inadequate continuing education audit and the others for reinstatement of licenses.

Lawyers of the Board of Medical Licensure and Supervision are conducting an investigation of inadequate, absent or possible fraud in the supervision of COTAs and OT students in Oklahoma. Their findings up to this time were reviewed with the Committee.

The Committee reviewed and approved licensure applications and requests for pre-approval of continuing education.

The NBCOT Annual State Regulatory Conference will be Oct. 23-24. Debra Smart will attend.

A question concerning responsibility for school accreditation was asked. The Board of Medical Licensure and Supervision has no responsibility for the accreditation of schools of OT.

The next meeting of the committee will be Oct. 1. The offices of the Board of Medical Licensure and Supervision will be moving to a new location before this time. Watch for notification of the new address.
