

COTA Representative Report
Debbie Smart, COTA/L
Submitted for the February 2008 Newsletter

Happy New Year! I hope you met most of your 2007 goals! I hope this year brings you great things both personally and professionally. Now it's time to set your goals for 2008!

OOTA is here for you! If you're not already an active member of our state association, please consider joining. If you are an active member – THANK YOU! It takes a lot of work to make a great organization. Together we can work toward the mission and vision of OOTA.

Thanks again for the opportunity to serve you and our profession. Please remember, I'm here for YOU!

If you have any comments, questions, concerns, or suggestions, please feel free to e-mail me at: dsmart@suddenlink.net

Mission: To be an advocate for occupational therapy.

Vision: To be a resource for our members, clients, and community at-large.
