

Secretary Report
Meg Smith, OTR/L
Submitted for the April 2007

The February 3rd OOTA quarterly meeting was held following the excellent presentation titled “Rehabilitation Methods Consistent with Neuroscience Evidence”. Presenters included David Garrison, PhD, Shirley James, PT, MS, Toby Hamilton, PhD, MPH, OTR/L, Carrie Ciro, MHS, OTR/L, and Cyndy Robinson, MS, OT/L.

Mary Isaacson was elected OOTA treasurer to complete the term vacated by Anne Marie Grassman. Mary will complete the April OT month promotions with educational presentations at Lowe’s stores around the state.

Debbie Smart is working to increase OOTA membership through ideas like 2 for 1 joining promotions this spring.

Suena Olson requested member feedback for the representative assembly at the 2007 AOTA conference upcoming in St. Louis. All feedback is important for our OK voice.

John Jennings is working on nominations for upcoming secretary and student representative office elections. Send self or peer nominations to John.

Susan Tucker reported that the newsletter February issue is out with reports and calendar.

Jennifer Campbell reported that the form to sign up for the OOTA list serve is available on the OOTA website.

The executive Board is looking to update bylaws OOTA to reflect current issues and practices in Oklahoma.

Report for February 2007 mailed to OOTA members in February 2007 OOTA newsletter
